SALOONS TO REMAIN OPEN

Only Close Where Elections Are to Be Held.

Austin, April 30.—The attorney general's department ruled that saloons will not have to close for Saturday's election, unless school trustees' elections are held, or any other kind of an election.

The state school textbook board was scheduled to meet here Thursday, but the meeting was postponed. Governor Campbell said that Mr. Lightfoot asked for further time.

T. J. Dinkins of Denton county, aged forty-seven years, died at the Pasteur Institute as result of being bitten by a horse. His family was at his bedside when the end came. This is the fourth death to occur at the institute since its establishment, three years ago.

MEN HAVE BEEN SEEN.

Three Sherman Jail Breakers Got Off a Train at Childress.

Sherman, Tex., April 30.—A telephone message from Sheriff Rich of Grayson county, who was at Wichita Falls Thursday morning, stated that Ed. Cash, Harry Fairless and Bob Trammell, got off a Fort Worth and Denver freight train at Childress Thursday morning shortly after daylight. They were seen in Denton county Wednesday, but evaded a posse of officers and citizens who went in search of them, and went to Fort Worth. Sheriff Rich left Wichita Falls for Childress, after having put a posse on the trail of the men.

TRAIN HITS WAGON.

Vehicle Torn to Pieces and Occupants Terribly Injured.

Dallas, April 30.—As a wagon was crossing the Texas and Pacific railway track at Ervy street and Pacific avenue Thursday morning it was struck by a passenger train. The vehicle was converted into kindling wood and horse badly hurt. Mr. Moserman, who was driving, and a boy named Max Tobolsky, the occupants, were thrown out and terribly injured. Both of Mr. Moserman's legs were crushed and his injuries are thought fatal. The boy was also frightfully hurt, but will recover.

Two Inches Deep.

Pittsburg, April 30.—Snow fell in this vicinity early Thursday. In the country districts the ground was covered with two inches.

SNOW AND FROST.

Frigid Conditions Prevail Thursday In Some States.

Cleveland, O., April 30.—A heavy wet snow began falling here early Thursday and reports indicate the storm prevailed practically over the entire state. The recent warm weather brought out vegetation of all kinds to an unusual extent for this season of the year. If the cold weather continues serious damage may result.

DESTROYED BY WIND.

Tobacco Sheds, Barns and Other Wooden Structures Demolished.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 30.—A terrific wind storm destroyed considerable property a few miles east of this city early Thursday. Tobacco sheds, barns and other wooden structures were razed and damage to crops is heavy. So far as known there is no loss of life. Wires are down in many directions, making communication almost impossible.

NORTH TEXAS VISITED.

Garden Truck and Grain Reported to Have Been Badly Affected.

Dallas, April 30.—Killing frosts are reported as having visited all north Texas counties Thursday morning and extended as far south as Lampasas. Garden truck and grain crops have been damaged, but fruit is not seriously affected. The thermometer registered as low as 32 degrees at Lampasas, being the coldest weather for the last of April on record there.

Fleecy Staples Damaged.

Waxahachie, Tex., April 30.—A heavy frost visited Ellis county Wednesday night. Farmers fear cotton is seriously injured. Thermometer went down to 33 degrees.

Suffer Only Slightly.

Cincinnati, April 30.—A heavy wet snow fell in this section early Thursday. As the weather is not very cold fruit and growing crops suffer only slightly. Vegetables are not badly damaged.

Cotton Injured.

Paris, Tex., April 30.—A heavy and killing frost fell in Lamar county Wednesday night and much damage is reported from the bottom lands to the crops, cotton especially suffering.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MAY 1, 1908.

Keep cool and look pleasant. The campaign will end in two more days.

Cotton in the Kingsville country is forming squares and no sign of boll weevils.

Meanwhile, let's not grow weary in well doing but carry on the clean and screen campaign.

It is said that Governor Campbell is the only prominent politician in Texas who wears a moustache.

Those grassers that sold at Fort Worth Monday at 6 cents per pound should all be cut into sirloin steaks.

Every man who adds a name to the payroll of Bryan in the way of legitimate business is a public benefactor.

There is no use arguing which is the best part of Texas. Every part is better than any other country for something or other.

The weather man has been ringing the changes pretty fast lately, passing from hot dry weather to floods and then to frost and ice.

Give your name to the membership committee of the Bryan Progressive League and go to work for Bryan and Brazos county.

When an ordinary American passenger liner can run over and sink a British warship of the second class it don't seem that we are in great danger on account of an insufficient navy.

Speaking of "the ideal editor," William J. Bryan recently said: "The man who is not permitted to put his conscience in every line that is written is not the ideal editor. I believe that the ideal editor is the editor who owns his own paper and says what he himself believes."

CARLISLE WON INTERSCHOLAS. TIC.

In the Interscholastic Athletic meet at Austin yesterday Carlisle Military Institute of Arlington, Texas, won the championship. The score, as reported to The Eagle last night, was as follows: Carlisle 53 points; Allen Academy 42 points; Austin High School, 8 points; Peacock Military School of San Antonio, 3 points. The Eagle learns the Academy boys lost on the relay race. The Academy boys have held the championship several years, and have made a fine showing in this meet. They can afford to let it go elsewhere for a year on the principle that there "is glory enough for all."

In the baseball game at Austin yesterday the A. and M. team lost to the State University by a score of 5 to 1.

ARBITRATION FRUITLESS

Head of United Mine Workers of America

DESIGNATES IT AS A FAD.

President Lewis Says After the Third Party to a Controversy Gets Through Those Directly Interested Eventually Settle Dispute Themselves.

Kansas City, Mo., April 30.—T. L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, prior to the meeting of the joint subcommittee, said: "Coal miners are opposed to arbitration. It is a fad. In the opinion of miners, based upon experience, arbitration as exemplified by the selection of the third party to the dispute, who is supposed to be impartial, but who knows nothing about the question in controversy, is never settled permanently in any labor controversy, or any other controversy. When faddists get through proposing things, the men who have the cold propositions present begin. I look for an early settlement of the strike of southwestern miners."

Operators persistently hold out for arbitration.

THREE JUDGES BACK.

Members of the Supreme Court of Philippines Are on Vacation.

San Francisco, April 30.—Three associate judges of the supreme court at Manila, and former judge of the land court, arrived here on a three months' vacation, combined with other business.

Two of them are insular delegates to the national political conventions. The three judges of the supreme court are E. F. Johnson of Ohio, J. T. Tracy of Albany, N. Y., and Adam C. Carson, originally from Riverton, Va.

The former judge of the land court, D. R. Williams, was originally a member of a New York law firm holding at Manila. He resigned his judicial position at Manila to enter upon private practice.

Judge Williams said: "Conditions in the islands are better than they ever have been. The Filipinos are beginning to become more and more satisfied with the American government, and a very large percentage would object to a withdrawal of the American sovereignty."

HUGHES TO STICK.

Governor's Name Will Remain Until Presidential Nomination Is Made.

New York, April 30.—The name of Governor Hughes will not be withdrawn from the presidential canvas until the national convention at Chicago has made choice of the candidates. This statement was made by General Stewart Woodford, president of the Hughes League of the United States, who presided at a conference of delegates elected to national convention from New York state at Hotel Astor Thursday, called in the interest of Governor Hughes' candidacy.

It has been reported that the announcement of the withdrawal of the governor's name as a candidate for the presidency might be announced at this conference, but this was positively denied by General Woodford.

Cannot Leave Cars.

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—Citizens of Yorkton declined to allow seventy-one Doukhobors shipped from Fort William back to the west to leave the cars, which are guarded by mounted police. Several members of the Doukhobors are nude and do not hesitate to sit before windows in view of the crowd of sightseers. All Doukhobors are living on a diet of peanuts and apples.
